

WHAT IS FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is a very precious thing in our lives, we constantly get into fights with our friends but the love we have for each other will always remain the same. A friend who's always beside you through ups and downs is a true blessing. In my opinion, friendship is one of the most important things in our life that we should be thankful for.

A true friend is always there for you no matter what, even if the seven signs of the apocalypse appeared and everyone is running for their life, a true friend would be looking for you in the middle of this chaos. And even in Greek mythology when it's all about the mighty and immortal gods, we can't deny that half of the myths and legends are about gods or sometimes mortals sacrificing themselves or risking their lives just to save a friend, just like how Damon was going to get himself killed only so he could give Pythias a chance to see his parents one more time before accepting his fate.

FRIENDSHIP

A true friend is consistently willing to put your happiness before your friendship and inspires you to live up to your best potential.

I love my friends because they are my best friend I have known them for 7 years and I wish we will stay together forever. My family and cousins are my friends also.

WHO IS A FRIEND

A friend is someone you will always find him beside you in your difficult times. Who knows everything about you and still loves you. That is why we said a friend in need is a friend indeed.

MESSY TOGETHER, MESSIER APART

Dear Jam,

Sorry for taking more space on the bread than you. I made everything about me when I should've given you the fair share that you deserve so that we could be equals. I'd do anything for our friendship. You should take as much space as me.

Love,

Peanut Butter.

PS. There's no me without you.

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is so important in our lives because our friends help us when we are in difficult times. But we have to know how to choose our friends because sometimes people just act out to be our real friends. A real friend is the one who walks in when the rest of the world walks out. The greatest gift of life is FRIENDSHIP.
