

Friendship is a relationship between two people who care about each other. Simply speaking, friendship means friendly relation between friends. The relation shows respect, trust and love. As saying goes, "A friend in need is a friend indeed." It means that a friend who helps you when you really need help is a true friend.

For example, they will take care of you when you fall down. They will encourage you when you are sad.

So, friendship is really a wonderful thing in our lives. It give us happiness and brighten up our lives. Friend ship is invaluable indeed.

(Group 1) by Jaime, Twinkle, Audrey, Pearl, Amanda