

friendship

What is friendship? Everybody never understand the real meaning of friendship. Friends are people with different personalities and can help each other and count on one another.

- Not USING each other.