

FRIENDSHIP ♡~ (let play~)

What is friendship? Everyone has different thinking about friendship. Someone think friendship is the love between friends. When friends play together, have meal together, have lessons, they have their friendship~!

Friendship is a relationship between the friends. What do Friendship do? Friendship do not do anything. It is just a relationship. So what do friend do? Different kind of friends do different things. For an example, if your friend is a kind person, she/he will helps you to do many things, such as teach you something..... But if your friend is a bad person, he or she will seldom or never helps you. How can you make friendship? As I say, Different kinds of friends do different things.

Then, Different kind of person make friendship in different ways. For an example, if you are a sociable person, you can make friends more easily~. Even a person who you only say 'Hello~' to is your friend. Your friendship is everywhere!

