The Graduate Record Examinations® Practice General Test #1

Answer Key for Section 2 - Verbal Reasoning 15 Questions

1. D. — spirituals
2. B. — They had little working familiarity with such forms of American music as jazz, blues, and popular songs.
3. C. — A common viewpoint is presented and modified, and the modification is supported.

4. C. — insular

Answer in Context: In the 1950s, the country's inhabitants were insular: most of them knew very little about foreign countries.

5. A. — maturity

Answer in Context: It is his dubious distinction to have proved what nobody would think of denying, that Romero at the age of sixty-four writes with all the characteristics of maturity.

6. Blank (i) A. — construe
Blank (ii) F. — collude in

Answer in Context: The narratives that vanquished peoples have created of their defeat have, according to Schivelbusch, fallen into several identifiable types. In one of these, the vanquished manage to construe the victor's triumph as the result of some spurious advantage, the victors being truly inferior where it counts. Often the winners collude in this interpretation, worrying about the cultural or moral costs of their triumph and so giving some credence to the losers' story.

7. Blank (i) B. — settled
Blank (ii) E. — ambiguity
Blank (iii) G. — similarly equivocal

Answer in Context: I've long anticipated this retrospective of the artist's work, hoping that it would make settled judgments about him possible, but greater familiarity with his paintings highlights their inherent ambiguity and actually makes one's assessment similarly equivocal.

8. Blank (i) B. — create
Blank (ii) F. — logical

Answer in Context: Scientists are not the only persons who examine the world about them by the use of rational processes, although they sometimes create this impression by extending the definition of “scientist” to include anyone who is logical in his or her investigational practices.

9. C. — It presents a specific application of a general principle.
10. A. — outstrip
11. B. — It is a mistake to think that the natural world contains many areas of pristine wilderness.
12. D. — emphasize the extent to which the modification of nature by human culture preceded the industrial period
13. Sentence to be completed: Dreams are _____ in and of themselves, but, when combined with other data, they can tell us much about the dreamer.
Answer D. — inscrutable
Answer F. — uninformative

14. Sentence to be completed: The macromolecule RNA is common to all living beings, and DNA, which is found in all organisms except some bacteria, is almost as _____.

Answer D. — universal

Answer F. — ubiquitous

15. Sentence to be completed: Early critics of Emily Dickinson's poetry mistook for simplemindedness the surface of artlessness that in fact she constructed with such _____.

Answer B. — craft

Answer C. — cunning

Answer C. — supercede
Answer F. — supplant
2. Sentence to be completed: Even in this business, where _____ is part of everyday life, a talent for lying is not something usually found on one's resume.

Answer B. — mendacity
Answer C. — prevarication
3. Sentence to be completed: A restaurant's menu is generally reflected in its decor; however, despite this restaurant's _____ appearance it is pedestrian in the menu it offers.

Answer A. — elegant
Answer F. — chic
4. Sentence to be completed: International financial issues are typically _____ by the United States media because they are too technical to make snappy headlines and too inaccessible to people who lack a background in economics.

Answer A. — neglected
Answer B. — slighted
5. C. — The editorial policies of some early United States newspapers became a counterweight to proponents of traditional values.

6. A. — insincerely

7. Blank (i) C. — multifaceted
Blank (ii) F. — extraneous

Answer in Context: The multifaceted nature of classical tragedy in Athens belies the modern image of tragedy: in the modern view tragedy is austere and stripped down, its representations of ideological and emotional conflicts so superbly compressed that there's nothing extraneous for time to erode.

8. Blank (i) C. — ambivalence
Blank (ii) E. — successful
Blank (iii) H. — assuage

Answer in Context: Murray, whose show of recent paintings and drawings is her best in many years, has been eminent hereabouts for a quarter century, although often regarded with ambivalence, but the most successful of these paintings assuage all doubts.

9. B. — a doctrinaire

Answer in Context: Far from viewing Jefferson as a skeptical but enlightened intellectual, historians of the 1960s have portrayed him as a doctrinaire thinker, eager to fill the young with his political orthodoxy while censoring ideas he did not like.

10. C. — recapitulates

Answer in Context: Dramatic literature often recapitulates the history of a culture in that it takes as its subject matter the important events that have shaped and guided the culture.

11. E. — affirm the thematic coherence underlying Raisin in the Sun
12. C. — The painter of this picture could not intend it to be funny; therefore, its humor must result from a lack of skill.
13. E. — But the play’s complex view of Black self-esteem and human solidarity as compatible is no more “contradictory” than Du Bois’ famous, well-considered ideal of ethnic self-awareness coexisting with human unity, or Fanon’s emphasis on an ideal internationalism that also accommodates national identities and roles.
14. A. — It reflects Hansberry’s reservations about the extent to which the American dream has been realized.
C. — It shows in the play’s thematic conflicts.
15. C. — Because of shortages in funding, the organizing committee of the choral festival required singers to purchase their own copies of the music performed at the festival.
16. Blank (i) C. — mimicking
Blank (ii) D. — transmitted to

Answer in Context: New technologies often begin by mimicking what has gone before, and they change the world later. Think how long it took power-using companies to recognize that with electricity they did not need to cluster their machinery around the power source, as in the days of steam. Instead, power could be transmitted to their processes. In that sense, many of today’s computer networks are still in the steam age. Their full potential remains unrealized.

17. Blank (i) C. — defiant
Blank (ii) D. — disregard for

Answer in Context: Of course anyone who has ever perused an unmodernized text of Captain Clark's journals knows that the Captain was one of the most defiant spellers ever to write in English, but despite this disregard for orthographical rules, Clark is never unclear.

18. A. — There have been some open jobs for which no qualified FasCorp employee applied.
19. A. — The pull theory is not universally accepted by scientists.
B. — The pull theory depends on one of water's physical properties.
20. E. — the mechanism underlying water's tensile strength
