The Graduate Record Examinations Practice® General Test #3

Answer Key for Section 3 - Verbal Reasoning
25 Questions

1. E. — clear

   Answer in Context: Many find it strange that her writing is thought to be tortuous; her recent essays, although longer than most of her earlier essays, are extremely clear.

2. E. — benign

   Answer in Context: Most spacecraft are still at little risk of collision with space debris during their operational lifetimes, but given the numbers of new satellites launched each year, the orbital environment in the future is likely to be less benign.

3. C. — a detachment

   Answer in Context: The author presents the life of Zane Grey with a detachment unusual in a biographer: he is not even convinced that Grey was a good writer.

4. Blank (i) A. — missing from
   Blank (iii) E. — commonplace

   Answer in Context: The unironic representation of objects from everyday life is missing from serious American art of the twentieth century: “high” artists ceded the straightforward depiction of the commonplace to illustrators, advertisers, and packaging designers.
5. Blank (i) A. — discussed
Blank (ii) D. — disappear

Answer in Context: A newly published, laudatory biography of George Bernard Shaw fails, like others before it, to capture the essence of his personality: the more he is discussed, the more his true self seems to disappear.

6. Blank (i) C. — impudence
Blank (ii) E. — courteous

Answer in Context: Although he has long had a reputation for impudence, his behavior toward his coworkers has always been courteous, suggesting he may not be as insolent as people generally think.

7. Blank (i) C. — nettles
Blank (ii) F. — observation
Blank (iii) G. — contemptuous

Answer in Context: There is nothing that nettles scientists more than having an old problem in their field solved by someone from outside. If you doubt this observation, just think about the contemptuous reaction of paleontologists to the hypothesis of Luis Alvarez—a physicist—and Walter Alvarez—a geologist—that the extinction of the dinosaurs was caused by the impact of a large meteor on the surface of the planet.
8. Blank (i) A. — casual
Blank (ii) E. — plentiful
Blank (iii) H. — discern

Answer in Context: If one could don magic spectacles—with lenses that make the murky depths of the ocean become transparent—and look back several centuries to an age before widespread abuse of the oceans began, even the most casual observer would quickly discover that fish were formerly much more abundant. Likewise, many now-depleted species of marine mammals would appear plentiful. But without such special glasses, the differences between past and present oceans are indeed hard to discern.

9. B. — has been studied more thoroughly by historians

10. D. — illustrate the wide range of people who used the civil legal system in England during that period

11. B. — Because it is inaccurate, the history of civil law in early modern England should enrich the general historical scholarship of that period.

12. C. — is called into question by the chain of events described in the passage
13. C. — They play only a minor role in the productivity of salt-marsh ecosystems.

14. C. — Almost all of the officials who have served in city government for any length of time are appointees of Mayor Bixby.

15. Sentence to be completed: The slower-learning monkeys searched _______ but unintelligently: although they worked closely together, they checked only the most obvious hiding places.

   Answer C. — cooperatively
   Answer F. — harmoniously

16. Sentence to be completed: By about age eight, children’s phonetic capacities are fully developed but still _______; thus children at that age can learn to speak a new language with a native speaker’s accent.

   Answer A. — plastic
   Answer F. — malleable
17. Sentence to be completed: In medieval philosophy every physical phenomenon is presumed to have some determinate cause, leaving no place for _______ in the explanation of particular events.

   Answer A. — happenstance
   Answer B. — chance

18. Sentence to be completed: Although the film is rightly judged imperfect by most of today’s critics, the films being created today are _______ it, since its release in 1940 provoked sufficient critical discussion to enhance the intellectual respectability of cinema considerably.

   Answer A. — beholden to Answer B. — indebted to

19. Sentence to be completed: The detective’s conviction that there were few inept crimes in her district led her to impute some degree of _______ to every suspect she studied.

   Answer B. — acumen
   Answer D. — shrewdness

20. B. — perceive the odor as being less intense than it was upon first exposure

21. A. — The exposures are of long enough duration for researchers to investigate many aspects of olfactory adaptation.
22. C. — help illustrate how the information gathered from most olfactory research may not be sufficient to describe the effects of extended exposures to odors

23. A. — Northern Renaissance prints should be regarded as passive representations of their time.
   C. — Northern Renaissance prints provide reliable records of contemporary events, opinions, and beliefs.

24. A. — disinterested

25. C. — The compounds break down into harmless substances after a few months of exposure to water or air.

Answer Key for Section 4 - Verbal Reasoning
25 Questions

1. A. — polemical
   Answer in Context: This filmmaker is not outspoken on political matters: her films are known for their aesthetic qualities rather than for their polemical ones.

2. C. — precedence
   Answer in Context: James Boswell’s Life of Samuel Johnson is generally thought to have established Boswell as the first great modern biographer; yet the claim of precedence could be made for Johnson himself as author of a life of Richard Savage.

3. Blank (i) A. — susceptible to
   Blank (ii) E. — panned
   Answer in Context: Critics charge that the regulatory agency, having never defined what constitutes an untenable risk, has grown susceptible to outside influences on that issue: several experts have panned it recently for allowing one power plant to delay an inspection for more than six weeks despite compelling safety concerns.
4. Blank (i) C. — a discontinuity
   Blank (ii) D. — incompatible

   Answer in Context: Television promotes a discontinuity of emotion in viewers through an unnatural evocation, every five minutes, of different and incompatible feelings.

5. Blank (i) B. — preeminence
   Blank (ii) F. — beguile

   Answer in Context: Because we assume the preeminence of natural design, nature can often beguile us: as the Wright brothers noted, the birds initially misled them in almost every particular, but their Flyer eventually succeeded by being the least avian of the early flying machines.

6. Blank (i) C. — arrogant
   Blank (ii) D. — prickly
   Blank (iii) G. — dispel

   Answer in Context: Colleagues describe Padgett as both forthright and reticent, humble and arrogant, good-natured and prickly. And in her behavior as a businesswoman, Padgett herself does little to dispel these contradictions. She says she is proemployee but is avowedly antiunion. She calls herself procustomer but acknowledges that she runs a store with higher profit margins and prices than almost any other grocer.
7. Blank (i) C. — banal
   Blank (ii) D. — consequence
   Blank (iii) G. — elusive

   Answer in Context: Historical research makes two somewhat antithetical truths that sounded banal come to seem profound: knowledge of the past comes entirely from written documents, giving written words great consequence, and the more material you uncover, the more elusive your subject becomes.

8. Blank (i) B. — undermines
   Blank (ii) E. — articulate
   Blank (iii) I. — posturing

   Answer in Context: The recent publication of the painter Robert Motherwell’s substantial body of writing, as well as writings by fellow Expressionist Barnett Newman, undermines Ann Gibson’s assertion that the Abstract Expressionists were reluctant to articulate issues of artistic meaning in their work and suggests that this supposed reticence was perhaps more artistic posturing than historical fact.

9. E. — presenting one scholar’s explanation for a major development in Behn’s literary career

10. B. — emphasize the consequences of these characters’ actions in the private sphere
11. B. — The structure of the private sphere should not replicate the hierarchical order of the public sphere.

12. D. — assumption made by the authors of conventional dramatic tragedies that legitimate tragic action occurs only in the public sphere

13. A. — Failure to allow for some of the processes that influence climate
   B. — Mathematical equations that do not accurately reflect natural phenomena
