

Interpreting the Praxis™ Institutional Summary Report

This report details specific categories and offers comparative information about each key area. To help you use this information effectively, view the examples for each area from a sample institution.

Index of Tests

The Index offers a list of each Praxis test for which candidates reported receiving relevant training at your institution.

Demographic Information

Your institution's test-taker population is identified by gender, ethnicity, education level and major field of study.

Score Distributions

The Score Distributions allow for comparative analysis of all examinees across the nation and from your institution.

Score Distribution by Gender, Ethnicity, Education Level and Undergraduate Level

This data is specific to those examinees who received relevant training at your institution and is categorized by gender, ethnicity, education level and undergraduate level.

Detailed Category Score Information

This section provides comparative data of the test category for your institution, your state and the nation.

Detailed Score Information by Quartile

Your institution's score data is listed by test category and quartile. Quartiles are calculated by using all examinees taking the test during the specified testing period.

Lists each Praxis™ test for which candidates reported receiving relevant training at your institution.
