Do you know the real meaning of friendship? It means the divine relationship between two or more people where only trust exists without any demands. Friendship is one of the most precious gifts of life. A person who has true friends in life is lucky enough. Friendship is a sweet and pleasant experience.

Friendship is both good and necessary. Man cannot live all alone. True friendship is a great asset in life. He needs someone to share his joys and sorrows. Friends are needed for support and for sharing. A true friend is always ready to give care, support and whatever that is necessary to the other in a true friendship.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. It means that someone whom you call a friend, is always there to help you when you are in difficulty or in trouble. True friends make our lives meaningful and show us the right path of success in life. They are friends who make our journey of life easy and joyous. They never laugh at our mistakes but lead us on right path through continuous support.

True friendship has no blood relations. However there are times when it does more than any blood relation. It gives us memorable, sweet and pleasant experiences of many types in the life. Nowadays, it is very hard to find true friends in the crowd of bad and good people. We can say that true friendship is more precious than any priceless gem in the world. If someone has true friends, no other than him is luckier in the world.
